

eBooks-On-Demand-Network Opening Publications for European Netizens

This project intends to make 15 000 textual documents from the 20th and 21st century available digitally to reach more than 1 million people in Europe, particularly young people and those with special needs to spread best practice in rights clearance among the professional community internationally

Help us open up hidden knowledge: tell us what to digitise!
